Rusk, Texas,

June 12, 1895:

Dear Gen. Lee: I see Prof.
Lipscomb was elected to the Chair of English at the University.

Unless you already have his successor in view, I should like to have my claims considered for the position vacated by him.

My training since leaving College has been such,
I think, as to give me special preparation for the duties of that position.

I have taken special

Courses in the Science of teaching, and my work has been right along the line of College preparatory work.

I shall be pleased to send you, at once, testimonials showing my record in Texas.
Yours very truly,
I. B. Reid.
